IN THE
Court of Appeal of the State of California

IN AND FOR THE
Fifth Appellate District

F033400      In re Sergio M., a Minor

The finding that appellant committed the violation of section 148.9(a) alleged in the wardship petition filed August 21, 1998 is reversed. The maximum period of physical confinement is reduced to eight years four months, representing the period declared by the court less the two months of that period attributable to the section 148.9(a) adjudication that we reverse. The juvenile court is directed to cause to be prepared an amended "Commitment to the California Youth Authority" so indicating, and to forward a copy to the California Youth Authority. In all other respects, the orders appeal from are affirmed.

By the Court.
